

Description

The easy-to-install Adaptable Door Viewer from Chameleon comes supplied with two barrels of varying lengths to allow for installation into doors between 35mm and 85mm thick. Popularly used in residential buildings, this 160° door viewer allows occupants to quickly identify callers without needing to open the door.

160° Vision

Features

- Popular security device for rental properties and other dwellings
- Available in a range of finishes
- Allows occupants to quickly identify callers without needing to open the door
- Supplied with two adjustable barrels to suit doors between 35mm and 85mm thick
- 160° Vision

Product Table

CH30070
Polished Brass (35mm - 85mm)

CH30071
Polished Chrome (35mm - 85mm)