

YALE Smart Home Alarm & View Kit SR-330

Description

The Smart Home Alarm range connects to other Yale security products such as CCTV and Home View Cameras and can also connect to your Yale Smart Door Lock when the appropriate module is fitted. By combining Yale smart door locks, CCTV, IP cameras and home alarms, you can build a Yale Ecosystem to suit your home, integrated under one point of access, the Yale Home App.

You can use your smartphone to arm, disarm, configure and control your Smart Home Alarm system anytime, anywhere, receiving picture alerts and notifications from the PIR Image Camera if the alarm is triggered. With no hidden costs or contracts and a 2 Year Manufacturer's Guarantee, the Yale Smart Home range is a comprehensive and reliable choice of home security system which can be expanded with up to 20 additional accessories, allowing you to customise your system depending your individual needs and security requirements.
