

Description

The 262 is a direct pull magnet from the Adams Rite Armlock range which maintains a holding force of at least 250kg (550lbs). Suitable for use on outward opening aluminium, timber and steel doors, it also has a security pin feature to help prevent unauthorised brackets removal of the magnet from the door frame fixing plate. The 262 is has a neat and compact case with a brushed aluminium finish, and the unit is CE marked to EMC directive.

3 Year Guarantee

Electronically Monitored

Features

- To suit outward opening doors
- For use with transom housing
- Suitable for single swinging or sliding door applications (not to be used as shear lock)
- Monitored version - C/NO/NC contacts
- CE marked
- Continuously rated

Product Table

L6080

Monitored