

Description

The CT330 is a container lock made from 6mm thick case hardened steel. It is ideal for preventing container doors from opening by securing them together. The lock uses the Bulldog 10 pin plunge lock which features a drill resistant centre pin, and it can be locked without the use of the key (2 keys are supplied).

10 Pin
Mechanism

Supplied With 2
Keys

5 Year Guarantee

Secured by Design Approved

Call To Order
Product

UK Manufactured

Features

- Minimum clearance between door bars and door is 6mm
- Over a million possible key combinations and can be locked without the use of a key
- Uses 10 pin plunge lock with drill resistant centre pin
- Case hardened 6mm thick steel (75mm width)
- Prevents container doors from opening by securing together
- Easy to fit and move from container to container

Product Table

L29902
CT330