

SILCA Lumi Key Profile Reader AVH5000

Description

The Silca Lumi profile reader is a lighting device to further improve the accuracy of suggested key blanks, when using the Silca Profile Reader software tool for key blank identification. This device optimizes the lighting and background conditions and has marker guides to help with the positioning and dimensioning of a key blank. It is made from durable solid steel and is supplied with a rechargeable LED light, white marker guide and USB-C charging cable.

Features

- Optimizes the lighting and background conditions to help make more accurate photo's
- MyKeysPro reader subscription required
- Rechargeable LED light with motion sensor
- White marker guide to aid key positioning
- Wide key coverage
- USB-C cable included
- Works with Silca profile reader to easily identify residential flat and dimple key blanks

Product Table

L35256

Requires MKP Reader Subscription