

GU SECUREconnect 200 Wireless Power & Data Transmission Unit

Description

The GU SECUREconnect 200 enables secure, wireless transfer of power and data between the door frame and leaf, and is suitable for use with all GU mechanical locks.

Wireless Data Connection

Features

- Tamper protection via encoded telegram interface
- Secure data interface with finger scanners or code keypads within the door leaf
- Long-life tappet contacts
- Short-circuit proof power transmission to the door leaf
- Integrated power supply unit for 230 V
- Easy installation in timber, UPVC and metal door systems

Product Table

L24967

Wireless power & data transmission