

Description

The universal reader is suitable to use with most access control systems that accept a clock and data input, as well as PAC controllers that use a single signal wire. The reader is supplied with a black fascia. Additional fascia colours are available if required.

IP 67 Rated

Weather Resistant

Features

- Cable length 5m
- OEM reader can be used with other access control systems
- No need to programme the reader; it works with most EM tokens including PAC and Impro, TDSI and also with Paxton Access tokens
- Suitable for extreme weather conditions

Product Table

L14689

Universal Clock & Data