

Description

The Videx 502N is a door switching relay for traditional audio systems. One is required on a two door system. When systems have more than two doors then one is required per door.

Features

- Allows handsets to speak with multiple entrances and control lock release function
- Supplied in a 8 modules A type DIN box

Product Table

L2519
502N