

Description

The DM3 is a self contained door monitoring unit requiring only an external low voltage power supply and a set of normally closed door contacts. There is an internal sounder and an override key switch to disable the unit.

Features

- Internal sounder can be programmed to chime when door opens or generate alarm sound during alarm conditions
- Door forced alarm state
- Monitors whether door is opened/forced open/left open
- Built in chime facility

Product Table

L10909
DM3